

Electronic signatures at HSBC Czech Republic

IDEA

Simplifying the communication with our clients and starting the change from paper to electronic signing

BENEFITS

Saving time during the signing process, possibility to sign outside the office, no fees for postage, secured and modern solution

WHO

All clients that have a current account and want to sign various documents in distant way

WHAT

Scope of documents will be continuously enlarged, while starting with a selection of 4 documents under particular circumstances

- HSBCnet agreement and appendixes,
- Selected appendixes to current account agreement,
- Selected loan agreement and appendixes,
- Trade Finance Export contracts

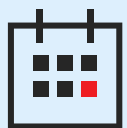

HOW

Clients will be offered to sign documents via attached links in e-mails, without any registration and installation of the secured platform Adobe Sign

Necessity to have Adobe Reader and a Qualified Certificate for eSignatures, issued by any of the Trust Service Providers (TSP) listed in European Union Trusted List (EUTL), the followings are located in the Czech Republic:

- First certification authority, a.s.
- The Czech Post, s.p. (Česká pošta / PostSignum)
- elidentity a.s.

WHEN

Launch of pilot is planned for May/June 2019

HSBC